Mr. ReBrook,

Other than you agreeing to listen in on behalf of the NSM Detroit at my deposition, have I retained you?

Burt –

Attached are court filings for the Sines vs Kessler case regarding the NSM and NF. Thus far it has been your position that you will not cooperate and participate in the discovery process without being personally named in the Sines v Kessler lawsuit. Without the NSM and your cooperation and participation in discovery it is impossible to be able to remain effective as counsel. Jeff Schoep's position as a peace advocate and speaking out against the NSM and the white nationalist movement has also created a conflict of interest between clients.

According to the Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel Discovery from NSM and your own deposition, the Florida nonprofit of The National Socialist Movement is indeed just a continuation/reincorporation of the now dissolved Michigan National Socialist Movement. In your deposition you stated that you "reincorporated" the NSM in Florida. Given that by your own admission the Florida NSM is a reincorporation of the Michigan NSM, the judge will most likely hold the Florida nonprofit NSM as the same NSM named in this current litigation. Therefore, you/NSM will be required to cooperate/participate in this discovery process. There is only so much counsel is able to do on your behalf without any cooperation.

Do you have any intention to cooperate and participate in this litigation and discovery process from this point forward? We need an answer on this as soon as possible.

Best Regards –
